4.4. Registration is free of charge, as is the delivery of the certificate that is sent to the relevant local authority and presented to the Laureates through the latter.

4.5. The selected candidates shall be asked to submit an original extract from the strafregister model 1 (formerly getuigschrift van goed zedelijk gedrag, certificate of good conduct) (no more than 6 months old at the time of the request) plus a copy of their identity card front and back) or, should the candidate be in possession of an electronic ID card, a copy of the document showing his address. This can be obtained free of charge from most municipalities for the purpose of a obtaining distinction. The extract will only be made available to the Commissioner General of the Government or his deputy. The members of the Organising Committee and the Selection Committee do not have access to this extract at any time.

5. SELECTION PROCEDURE

5.1. The selection procedure's aim is to assess whether candidates meet the defined requirements and criteria stated in paragraph 2 and 3 of these regulations.

5.2. The selection takes place under the supervision of the Organising Committee, which may decide to appoint Selection Committees. Just like the Organising Committee, the Selection Committee is composed of representatives of the representative workers' and employers' organizations. The recommendations made by the Selection Committees must be ratified by the Organising Committee.

5.3. The selection is made on the basis of the evidence in the dossier (answers to the questions and required attachments), based on an interview held by the members of the Selection Committee if it will be making the decision. The Selection Committee may also request additional information in writing from the candidate and/the signatories of the certificates attached to the dossier.

5.4. Candidates will be excluded if they do not provide the required official documents and information either at the time of registration or during the evaluation procedure or if they do not respond to the invitation for an interview with the Selection Committee.

5.5. If, after a detailed examination of the dossier, the Selection Committee finds that the conditions and criteria for the requested label have not been fulfilled, the Selection Committee, if this is approved by the Organising Committee, may recommend the awarding of a different label, provided the application meets the required conditions and criteria and the candidate consents in the manner and within the time frame to be communicated to him.

5.6. The recommendation of the Selection Committee shall be communicated to the candidate during the procedure. The candidate may request information about the decision in writing or contest the Organising Committee's decision within 15 calendar days of the official notification. This request or dispute will be submitted to the Organising Committee, which will submit a recommendation to the Commissioner General of the Government or his deputy, who will make the final decision.

5.7. Awarding the title of Laureate for Work is not automatic in any way.

5.8. Following the signing of the Royal Decision regarding the awarding of the title of Laureate for Work, the nominated candidates shall be notified in writing by the Royal Institute of the Elites of Work.

6. GENERAL PROVISIONS

6.1. By registering:

- The candidates shall indemnify the Royal Institute of the Elites of Work and any persons who cooperate with this organization of any liability, and specifically of the kind that may arise from the application of sections 1382, 1383 and 1384 of the Civil Code, during the course of the selection activities and the use of any materials that may be put at the disposal of the candidates;
- The candidates subject themselves to the provisions of these regulations and the decisions of the Organising Committee and the Commissioner General of the Government. Nor can they give rise to any compensation with regard to the candidates.

6.2. Any declarations that are intentionally false shall lead to the annulment of the application.

6.3. The candidate dossiers and their attachments shall not be returned to the candidates.

7. FINAL PROVISIONS

7.1. The selected candidates shall be nominated for the title of Laureate for Work with a bronze distinction – Label Future of the profession; a silver distinction – Label Specialist in the profession and a gold distinction – Label Expert in the profession

7.2. To cover the costs involved in the physical presentation of the distinction, a financial contribution shall be sought from the employers, the Laureates themselves or another body, depending on the case in question.

7.3. The Royal Decision granting the title of Laureate for Work is published in the Belgian official journal.

- 7.4. The members of the Organising Committee and the Selection Committees, as well as any person who sits in as an observer or substitute shall – under no circumstances – disclose any information concerning the candidate dossiers and the results of the selection proceedings to third parties. They are also prohibited from disclosing their own assessments or that of other members of the Committee with regard to the professional value of the candidates to third parties.
- 7.5. Any collected personal data is protected within the meaning of European Regulation 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 (entered into force on 25 May 2018) on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (GDPR).
The data is collected to process the application, to submit information about the activities of the Royal Institute of the Elites of Work and/or the Royal College of Honorary Deans for Work (Koninklijk College der Eredekens van de Arbeid) and to answer any questions. By signing the regulations, the candidate also expressly gives consent for the processing of any sensitive data obtained as part of his candidacy. This data will be destroyed after the organization of the second, follow-up selection procedure.
Under no circumstances shall it be handed over to third parties. The surname and given name/names of the selected candidates and the municipality in which they are domiciled and the relevant business sector shall be mentioned in the Royal Decision. The names of the selected candidates shall be listed publicly and on the occasion of the official presentation of the distinctions and the certificate.
Anyone participating in the presentation ceremony for the distinctions and the certificates give the organisers permission to publish and reproduce any photographs taken during this occasion. Furthermore, data is collected and processed anonymously for statistical and qualitative purposes to improve the services of the Royal Institute of the Elites of Work. The personal data (except the data required for the Royal Decision, which has already been published in the Royal Decision) can be viewed, modified or removed on request by sending an e-mail to: info@iret-kiea.be.
- 7.6. In exceptional cases, the Organising Committee may, subject to the support and tacit agreement of the Commissioner General of the Government or his deputy, deviate from the provisions of these regulations

I hereby declare to have read the regulations and accept them in their entirety.
